PANDEMIC PROTOCOLS

Please know that the Congregation Council will continue to review our pandemic protocols regularly and adjust them as necessary. The following protocols are in effect at this time:

- Wearing a mask during worship is optional at this time.
- There are three tiers of seating safety: (1) The pews on the main floor of the nave are open for family groups. Please consider your physical distance. (2) The back two rows of seating on each side (4 family groups) are marked and reserved for those wearing masks and needing more distance from others to feel safe. (3) Upstairs balcony seating (font side) is available for masked non-singers.
- Members are reminded to maintain some physical distance when visiting with one another, especially before and after worship service.
- The Wednesday Holy Communion Service is always a spoken service and is the safest.

We do things like get vaccinated, wear face coverings, maintain physical distance, and curtail our singing for the sake of one another. While these actions may be inconvenient or uncomfortable, we seek to live out our love for our neighbor, in faithful obedience to our Lord, Jesus Christ.

JOIN US EACH WEEK FOR A NEW OPPORTUNITY FOR FELLOWSHIP!

It was so good to see everyone at our recent gathering that we decided to make it a habit! Every Sunday right after Worship, please join us for an informal gathering with snacks and beverages in Friendship Hall. On the first Sunday of the month we'll honor those with birthdays that month and on the third Sunday of the month, we'll honor those with wedding anniversaries that month. Happy news is good news! Hope to see you there!

ECHO MEAL

St John Lutheran Church will be providing the meal for the October ECHO Community Meal. Thank you to everyone who volunteered to make a casserole and took home a pan! Just follow the recipe and return the UNCOOKED casserole to the church at the date and time specified on the lid of the aluminum pan. Thank you for your generosity to our neighbors! And heartfelt thanks to everyone who volunteered to help on the day of the meal!

ALL SAINTS SUNDAY

On the first Sunday in November, it is the custom of Saint John Lutheran Church to remember those whose funerals occurred in the previous year. Although letters of invitation are sent to the families of those for whom we have provided worship services, you are welcome to come and pray with us for other family members who passed this year, as well.

On November 6, 2022, at our worship celebration at 9:00 a.m., we will celebrate the promises of the Resurrection, through remembrance of Holy Baptism, celebration of Holy Communion, and prayers for your loved one. You and your family are invited to worship with us this day. We grieve with you in your loss. We want you to be aware of this November 6th celebration, and to know that you are always welcome at our worship celebrations, but especially this day on which we remember all deceased loved ones. Please extend this information and invitation to other family members that may be interested. We pray that God comforts you in your grief and gives you hope in the resurrection of our Lord, Jesus the Christ. God's peace be with you and yours.

FALL SUNDAY BOOK STUDY, 10:30-11:30A.M. THIS WEEK

The Forgotten Luther: Reclaiming the Social-Economic Dimension of the Reformation, edited by Carter Lindberg, and Paul A. Wee, 2016. This collection of essays from leading Lutheran thinkers, theologians, and activists excavates Luther's theological focus on social and economic justice. We will continue to study the chapters of this book over the following Sundays: October 23 and 30, and November 6 and 13. This week, we will discuss Chapter 3: The Subversive Luther pp. 43-54

Discussion Questions pp. 105-106. Discussion questions are in the book. (So you can think deep thoughts to share ahead of time.) Order your book today (under $20) from your favorite book seller, and join us in Friendship Hall. If you don't have your book yet or you missed the first two classes, come anyway! All are welcome!

LUTHERAN WORLD RELIEF PROJECTS FOR 2022

This year the Mission OutReach team of St John Lutheran Church would like to invite you to participate as you are able in gathering materials for LWR kits. Our focus during the summer months was Personal Care Kits. We want to thank everyone who contributed so generously to these kits. Our current project is to collect materials for Baby Care kits from now until the end of December. Please see the list in the Narthex or the October Messenger for details of what is needed. Your kindness makes a difference!
